Platt Leads by Seventeen Votes Slavin Leads Thomas by 30

The latest returns from Reno at three o'clock this afternoon gave the preliminary canvass of the votes cast up to that hour as showing 7,902 for Platt and 7,885 for Newlands, leaving the Nevada boy seventeen votes to the good. In the judicial contest it is almost as close, the tally sheets showing Currier 9,422 and Coleman 9,495. In the county the contest for the office of sheriff was placed in the doubtful column this morning when returns from outside precincts began appearing. These favored Thomas and at 10 o'clock this morning the Slavin side only claimed a majority of 15 votes, which was said to have been increased to 25 late this afternoon.

Governor Oddie Wires Boyle His Warmest Congratulations

"It's back to the mines for me," said Governor Tasker L. Oddie this morning at the depot as he was taking the train for Carson City. "I have spent the greater part of my life in the game and I think I am still fit for handling mining business. After the first of January, when my successor is installed, I will look around until I find a good property in which I may be able to interest capital. There were many affairs in mind, but these belong to the other man and I will content myself with stating my intentions so far as personal interests are concerned. I have no complaint to make. The voters of Nevada have expressed their preference for open gambling and easy divorce and, if any one has anything to say in the way of criticism, all I have to do is to refer them to my remarks at the Miners' Exchange hall, where I said I would oppose easy divorce and open gambling and would not take any middle course on those questions. At that time I also told the people of Tonopah that when I resolved to adopt this policy I was of the opinion that it might lead to defeat as it is a hard fight to make against the organized so-called 'Liberal' interests of an entire state. It now remains for the legislature to act. If that body is in favor of the principles enunciated by the Democratic candidate then Nevada will have a restoration of the old times.

"I have no feeling of soreness or regret and this morning as soon as I had breakfast and came down town I wired congratulations to Mr. Boyle. He made a square fight and won and is entitled to the support of the people of Nevada. If there is anything I can do for him to smooth the way to assuming the executive office I will do so cheerfully. I am going to stay in Nevada and be as strong a booster and as enthusiastic a believer in the future of this state as I have ever been. The result of the election will not make a particle of difference to me, as I will be found always in the front rank of the men who boost for Nevada and for Tonopah. I propose to make my home in Tonopah and I will show by my acts that I have no grouse or soreness or ill feeling. The people have spoken and they are the tribunes of the state. They make and unmake laws and I defer to their judgment."

MONTHLY CLEAN UP OF THE PRINCIPAL MINES MAKES GREAT SHOWING.

The monthly clean up of the mines of Tonopah for October swelled the shipping columns of Wells Fargo in the past few days when shipments aggregating over ten tons were sent out to the refinery where the gold and silver will be separated.

The West End shipped 36 bars weighing 54,621 ounces, valued at $32,775. The Tonopah Extension completed their last weekly shipment with the month's clean up and sent out 20 bars weighing 2,609 pounds, valued at $24,500. The Montana, 18 bars weighing 18,272 ounces, $11,000. The Belmont sent out 89 bars weighing 179,014 ounces, valued at $107,498. The Tonopah Mining company shipped bullion and concentrates valued at $48,500. The aggregate value of the entire shipments is estimated approximately at $224,183 at the present low value of silver. NEVADA STATE PROPERTY

The vote as the inspectors closed the close that errors of sleepy clerks or judges might have thrown the election either way.

The first message received this morning at the Nevada state capital office was a call for back precincts or belated returns that would help the senatorial candidates who were said to be running neck and neck alternately leading and falling back, and then resuming the lead. As an indication of the close finish it is stated that at 9 o'clock this morning Reno reported Platt was nine ahead. Later this was changed to 15 ahead for Newlands. Under the circumstances it is a safe conjecture that the senatorial vote will be recounted, as the issue is too important for either candidate to accept figures that accompany the ballot boxes.

Mr. Will Thomas is confident that when the final returns come in he will show he is elected sheriff. Only twelve votes are required to overcome the alleged majority of Slavin and he is already informed by friends that Tybo, which has twelve registered votes, cast almost a solid ballot for him. Then there is none, with a registered vote of 60, of which he is reliably informed resulted in a majority of seven. Belmont has 28 votes, but as some of these were transferred to Manhattan, there is no way of estimating the probable result.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN OF ALLIES

GERMANS BRING RECRUITS TO RELIEVE VETERANS ON FIRING LINE.

(By International News Service.)
PARIS, Nov. 6.—The following official statement was issued by the war office this afternoon: "There was no appreciable change in the course of events yesterday. On the whole front the combat continues of the same character as on the preceding days between Dixmude and Lys with neither an advance nor a marked retreat at any point. A violent cannonade took place north of Arras and on that town without any result. The German effort in Belgium and north France continues. The Germans seem to be making changes in the composition of their forces operating that region and to be reinforcing with a newly formed reserve corps which has been severely tried by the German troops to attempt a new offensive or at least to palliate the bloody repulses which were inflicted upon them.

"Between Somme and Oise and between Oise and Meuse there are minor engagements. We have concentrated our advance on the village of Andechy.

"To the west of Roye a German wagon train was destroyed by our artillery fire at long range.

"In the region of Nampool to the northeast of the forest of Aigle and near Berry-au-Duc we have retaken the village of Sapigneul which the Germans captured after a terrific struggle.

"In Argonne and Woivre new attacks by the enemy repulsed."
